MEALS
- Districts are encouraged to provide meals for all children that need them, in a way that is convenient such as allowing families to “grab-and-go.” Check with your district for meal pick-up/drop-off options.
- Contact your local district office to find out how meals will be distributed.
- Find your district contact information here: https://www.isbe.net/Pages/PublicSchoolDistrictLookup.aspx
- If you do not have access to the internet, call ISBE for your district number: 866-262-6663 or 217-782-4321

CHILDRENCARE
- Under the Stay at Home order, childcare centers are closed to the general public.
- Many are currently applying to be licensed as emergency childcare centers to provide childcare to essential/emergency workers only.
- Parents’ co-pays will be $1.00.
- For more information regarding details on who should receive childcare and the related rules and regulations please go to DHS’ website: https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/OECD/Pages/For-Communities.aspx

UNEMPLOYMENT + HOUSING
- The Governor has stopped all evictions statewide during the duration of the COVID-19 emergency disaster. Right now, the declaration extends until at least April 7, 2020. Unemployment benefits may be available to individuals whose unemployment is related to COVID-19. Illinois has a new website for COVID-19 resources, including how to get unemployment benefits at https://www2.illinois.gov/sites/coronavirus/FAQ/Pages/Unemployment-FAQ.aspx.
- The Illinois Department of Employment Security’s unemployment benefits customer service phone number is: 800-244-5631 or 866-488-4016 TTY.

LEARNING + INSTRUCTION
- Beginning March 31 and until in-person instruction can resume, Illinois public schools will move into Remote Learning Days that will count as Instructional Days. Schoolwork will be given and graded but ISBE recommends that work completed during school closures take into account that students have different access to support and technology at home. Please contact your district for information on their Remote Learning Plan for all students, including students with special needs.
